Laura was invited to become our Executive Director in 2018 after leaving her position as Associate State Director of Community Outreach and Engagement for AARP New York in Albany. She has a M.A. in Social Policy and a B.A. in Jewish Studies and History. Laura began her professional career in the administrative office of Temple B'rith Kodesh, a Reform congregation in Rochester. She also worked as a geriatric case manager for Jewish Family Services in Rochester. Laura and her partner Doug live in Troy with his family, which includes Kaileigh, Scott, and Grandma, as well as 4-legged children Toby, Hazel, and Buddy.
