Rabbi Pearlman began her affiliation with Congregation Gates of Heaven as a rabbinic intern in 2005 in conjunction with her studies at The Academy for Jewish Religion in Riverdale, NY. Rabbi Pearlman concurrently earned a Bachelor of Arts in the Teaching of Chemistry from Boston University and a Bachelor of Jewish Education from Hebrew College in Boston. She has Masters degrees in Contemporary Jewish Studies from Brandeis University and Social Work from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Rabbi Pearlman has been a therapist for approximately twenty-five years. She now focuses her work on the elders of our congregational community.

Rabbi Pearlman lives in Niskayuna with her husband Dr. William Pearlman, and has three children, Rachel, Aaron, and Shira and three grandchildren.
